AMENDED PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

On September 25, 2007, this Court entered a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture pursuant to the Government's Motion for Issuance of a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture. On September 27, 2007, the United States filed a Motion requesting the Court to enter an Amended Preliminary Order to correct certain subject property in this action.

Accordingly, on motion of the United States and for good cause, the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture entered on September 25, 2007 is hereby VACATED, and this Amended Preliminary Order of Forfeiture is entered in its place.

On September 25, 2007, defendant Anthony Sean Walker ("Walker") pled guilty to Count One of the Superseding Information charging him with conspiring to possess with the intent to distribute cocaine, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846, i/c/w Title 21, United States Code, Sections 841(a)(1) and 841(b)(1)(A)(ii).

Count Three of the Superseding Information is a forfeiture count, pursuant to which the United States seeks forfeiture under 21 U.S.C. § 853, of specific property of defendant Walker, real or personal, representing proceeds of or used and intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit and promote the commission of the aforesaid violation.

The Court has determined, based on the evidence already in the record and defendant's plea agreement: (1) that defendant has an ownership interest in the following property; (2) that the following property is subject to forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853; and (3) that the United States has established the requisite nexus between the aforesaid offense and the following property:

BANK ACCOUNT

Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General or his designee is authorized to seize the subject property, and to conduct proper discovery in identifying, locating or disposing of the subject property in accordance with FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.2(b)(3).

Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General or his designee is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third-party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

The United States shall publish notice of the Order and its intent to dispose of the subject property in such a manner as the United States Attorney General or his designee may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject property.

Any person, other than the above-named defendant, asserting a legal interest in the subject property may, within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the Court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the subject property, and for an amendment of the Order of Forfeiture, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

Pursuant to FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.2(b)(3), this Amended Preliminary Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the sentence and included in the judgment. If no third-party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.2(c)(2).

Any petition filed by a third-party asserting an interest in the subject property shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the subject property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the subject property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

After the disposition of any motion filed under FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

The United States shall have clear title to the subject property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) for the filing of third-party petitions.

The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.2(e).

SO ORDERED, this 28th day of September, 2007.
